New Link Trainer

ST. ALBERT AIR CADETS RECEIVE NEW LINK TRAINER

The Edmonton Flying Club has presented the St. Albert Air Cadet Squadron with a link trainer. The new machine has been installed and now is in full working order.

Flying Club Manager M. Fellow, spoke briefly to the squadron on Thursday, pointing out that during his years with the club he has been responsible for the flying training of hundreds of Air Cadets. During a two week period this summer he was visited by several TCA, CPA and PWA captains as well as regular Air Force Officers - all of whom had learned to fly at the Edmonton Flying Club as Air Cadets.

The new link trainer replaces one which was purchased years ago by the Air Cadets and which was kept running by the untiring efforts of Stan Hodgson.

A link trainer fully imitates the action of a full sized aircraft, the instruments registering as if it were in flight. The squadron was particularly fortunate in receiving the new machine - original cost of such a machine during the war was in excess of $60,000.00 - since the RCAF no longer makes use of them there are very few left in existence. The old machine will be retained for spare parts for the new one.

All squadron members have an opportunity to fly the link. Cadets with the best polished shoes, cleanest haircuts, best pressed uniforms, etc., usually are chosen first. Top cadets have an opportunity to go on to full flying training at the Edmonton Flying Club. WO's Bob Lee and Ian McLellan are former members of the squadron who hold private pilots licences through their Air Cadet Training. LAC John Bischler was the first cadet to receive instruction on the new machine, under the watchful eye of P/O Stan Hodgson.

St. Albert Air Cadets are deeply indebted to the Edmonton Flying Club for the machine, to Chief Flying Instructor of the Club, Frank Elkins for the work he has put into assembling it and to Stan Hodgson for the hundreds of hours he spent keeping the old machine running.

Salary for the Mayor

TOWN WILL NOT BUY THE CURLING RINK

Council Meeting, Monday, September Report of the Executive Committee

1. Salary for the Mayor: The Executive Committee, consisting of Mayor Veness, Councillors Fowler and DeBruin, recommended to Council that the Mayor's salary be $6,000. per annum plus the usual expenses. An intensive discussion of the position and duties of the Mayor began. The Executive Committee suggested the creation of an Executive Secretary Treasurer (presently Senior Administrator), and Assistant Executive Officer (presently Assistant Secretary Treasurer) along with the Mayor, who would be the active Chief Magistrate. Councillor Powell asked if this wasn't just creating an extra top position, and Councillor Fowler said that it was. Councillor Powell then said that in the Mayor's Report it was mentioned that there would be important cuts and savings in salary, etc. "It seems to me," he said, "that by creating a new top executive job we are not saving. Right now, I am not in favour of payment to the Mayor." Councillor DeBruijn stated that if we have another man in the top executive it would be possible to do some of the jobs that have had to be neglected in the past, for instance, the industrial development of the town. Councillor Stewart mentioned that it could be possible that the mayor's salary bylaw won't get the two-thirds majority from the electors. "Who will give us a guarantee that the new mayor will work without payment. It could even be possible that he might resign after being elected, causing the town more election expenses."

Councillor Skrobot said that we are creating three new top positions although we haven't even pointed out the duties of our Senior Administrator. But Councillor Fowler said, "We aren't creating three new positions, it is only a change in names, but with the same duties." Councillor Powell said, "If we are not creating three new positions, why not just vote for a mayor's salary? But," he continued, "if I vote for the salary of the mayor, I would like to know before hand what his duties would be. What bothers me is that this salary business should have been settled a long time ago and not just before the elections." Councillor Skrobot felt that the mayor chosen should be a responsible man who would be willing to devote the necessary time for the town. Mayor Veness then said that it would be up to the elected mayor whether he accepted pay, or worked without pay as a volunteer. He felt that this evening was a matter of a serious principle.

Councillor Fowler then moved that a money bylaw be prepared for payment to the mayor of $6,000, per annum plus expenses to be brought before the electors. The new Councillors would set out the duties of the mayor. This motion was carried with Mayor Veness, Councillors Fowler, Skrobot and DeBruijn in favour, Councillors Powell and Stewart opposed. The following items also came under discussion:

2. Senior Administrative Officer "The position of Senior Administrative Officer be abolished. A new position of Executive Secretary Treasurer be created. The terms of reference for this position to be written by the Executive Committee chosen by Council. The Executive Committee should include the Mayor. These terms of reference to be written and submitted to Council for approval for its first meeting in November. The position of Assistant Secretary Treasurer to remain unchanged." Councillor Stewart moved that this item be delayed until after the results of the coming election are known.

3. Town Engineer's Duties "A study of the duties of the town engineer be undertaken with a view to making better use of the actual engineering aspects for the Towns present and future requirements. This study to be completed and submitted to Council by the first meeting in December. The Executive Committee could make this study." This was accepted by Council.

4. Reduce Outside Staff "Reduce outside staff to 15 as per agreement." Accepted.

5. Works Foreman "Appoint a general foreman of works with two sub-foremen." Accepted.

6. Maintenance Operations "Reduce maintenance operations in the garage to minor servicing operations. All major overhauls to be tendered." Will come under further study.

7. Rink Maintenance "Tender the maintenance and the operation of the outdoor skating rinks. Preference being given to former town employees and residents." Will be returned to the Executive Committee for further study.

8. Pumping Equipment "A study of the handling of emergency call and routine checks of pumping equipment to be made by the Administration, Town Engineer and Fire Chief with a view to eliminating shift work." Accepted.

9. Boulevard Construction "Examine the possibility of tendering boulevard construction." Accepted.

10. Detailed Design "Future developers be required by by-law to provide the detailed design of the servicing of the subdivision of their land. This is to be a condition of development." Accepted.

11. Zoning By-law "A study by the Technical Advisory Committee be made to initiate a zoning by-law for the built up areas." Accepted.

12. Local Authorities Board "Application be made to have the control of the Town by the Local Authorities Board lifted when the first payment is made on the $550,000. debenture." Accepted.

13. Town Boards "Only one Councillor be named to each town appointed board." Accepted.

14. Welfare and Child Assistance Act "A Committee of Council should be established to study the Welfare and Child Assistance Act. This Committee should meet with the Welfare Department of the Town as soon as feasible to recommend to Council the policies to be established in administering these acts." Accepted.

15. Staff Reduction "Due to the fact the Town is involved in development to a certain extent no firm recommendation can be made by this Committee in regard to the reduction of clerical staff. However, at the time the Town reaches a point where we are no longer involved in land sales and development, a sales review should be conducted." Accepted.

After a coffee break, Mayor Veness stated that in his eyes, item #2 was the key item in the whole report. He wondered what the electors will say about having an additional $6,000. top position. "I am of the opinion," he said, "that the electors should have the right to vote for the form of government that they want in our town, either a manager form of government (mayor, council and senior administrator) as we have now, or a mayor and council form of government (mayor council and secretary treasurer). Councillor Powell said that the form of government could be voted on after the electors have decided regarding a salaried mayor. "If you have a manager form of government as we have now, you can't have a paid mayor. I don't see how Coun cil can do it." Mayor Veness said, "Therefore Council should decide if they are satisfied with the present form of government. If you are not satisfied you should bring it before the electors so that they can decide what form they want. We are now out of construction, therefore we no longer need the position of Senior Administrator." To this, Councillor Stewart said, "We cannot criticize the manager form of government because the duties of the Senior Administrator were not specified. We cannot decide if it is good or not." Councillor Fowler said, "I can't see how we can justify two top functions (mayor and senior administrator), with two top salaries, to the electors."

At the conclusion of this very thorough discussion, Councillor Stewart made the following motion: "That the Council continue the present form of government and define the duties of the Senior Administrative Officer (as soon as possible), using the guide prepared prior to the appointment of the present incumbent." Carried.

Curling Rink On the advice of the Town solicitors, Councillor Powell moved that the Town not buy the Curling Rink. This was carried, although opposed by Mayor Veness and Councillor DeBruijn. Councillor Fowler moved not to proceed with By-law 42/64 which was a money by-law to buy the Curling Rink ($8,500.) Carried. Councillor Skrobot remarked, "I wonder how much it has cost the town for legal fees with this Curling Rink case over the years."

Covered Ice Rink Councillor Fowler and DeBruijn reported to Council following their visits to Ponoka, Wetsaskawin and Westlock to see their covered rinks. Ponoka's rink was 16 years old and there fore couldn't be compared. The rink in Westlock was very good, but it is not yet completed. However, the rink in Wetsaskawin was a wonderful building, complete with ice plant, dressing rooms, etc and cost a total of $225,000. The deficit for the first year's operation was very small, only about $2,000. Councillor DeBruijn moved that a money by-law of $175,000. for a covered ice rink be brought before the electors. This included architects fees but not the ice plant. Carried.

Council adjourned at a late hour.

COMMUNITY ART CLASSES

This year, a more intensive program will be offered in art instruction by the University of Alberta Extension Department. Starting in the fall, some centres will be visited twice a month. Others will be visited once a month as before. To make this improved schedule possible, some centralization is necessary. For those centres which cannot receive regular visits, short courses ranging from three to five days will be made available upon request. For further information, please write or phone the Department of Extension, University of Alberta, Edmonton.

ALBERTA FISH AND GAME ASSOCIATION

Henry Lembics, President of the Alberta Fish & Game Association, in a recent message to Alberta farmers, suggested that farmers seriously consider granting permission to hunt only to those people who can provide proof of their ability to pay for any damage they may cause. He pointed out that most Fish & Game clubs carry Public Liability and Property Damage to protect their members. Proof of a hunter's financial responsibility is printed on the back of his membership card.

Mr. Lembics reminded farmers that it is no longer necessary to insure crops against duck or other wild life damage. It is now possible to claim for crop damage up to a maximum of $15. per acre, the money coming from a fund paid for by hunters.

Mr. Lembics went on to state that the Alberta FGA, together with the FUA and Stockgrowers Association, continues to press the Alberta Government to include livestock indemnity with the present crop damage insurance scheme. The Government has promised to look into this scheme which is already in effect in some Canadian provinces.

This is a long-standing aim of the FGA, and the Government's promise to look into the scheme is the first encouraging response on their part, and we are very hopeful that this will be effected.

Mr. Lembics pointed out that the FGA is greatly concerned with the behavior of hunters in the field, and hopes that the Association's hunter training program, which is progressing very satisfactorily throughout the Province, will result in a better educated type of hunter who will be welcomed by land owners. Henry Lembics is an Alberta farmer who is as prominent in the FUA as he is in Fish and Game circles.

STURGEON HEALTH UNIT

National Immunization Week

This is National Immunization Week throughout Canada and is an excellent opportunity to assess your knowledge on the subject as well as to think about completing your immunization. This week is sponsored by the Health League of Canada and promotes the never-ending fight against epidemic diseases.

The following information from the Health League and your Department of Health on immunization is for your health and safety.

Smallpox - There is no natural immunity against smallpox and anyone of any age who has not been vaccinated may catch it. Every child should be vaccinated during their first year of life and the vaccination should be repeated every seven years during an epidemic, and for international travel, every three years.

Diphtheria - This is a killing disease, although in mild attacks, it may result in serious heart and nerve complications. By having diphtheria toxoid, best given at the end of the third month, the disease can be wiped out. Boosters are given one - two years later and just before school. Diphtheria is included in the 4 in 1 quadruple injection.

Poliomyelitis - With both Salk and Sabin vaccines, there is a rapid decline of polio. Too few adults avail themselves of the protection. There is no age limit for protection.

Quadruple (4 in 1) Protection - Polio, diphtheria, tetanus and whooping cough are combined in one preparation which gives necessary protection and saves many trips to Doctor or Clinic.

Adults need protection from Tetanus, polio and smallpox. Booster shots are needed about every five years to maintain immunity against these diseases.

National Immunization Week reminds Canadians that immunization agents are available free of charge at your Health Clinics and that their use is responsible for preventing and eradicating communicable diseases.

Literature on protecting your child with immunization is available upon request from the Sturgeon Health Unit in St. Albert and Westlock.

NEW STAMPS

FIRST CANADIAN CHRISTMAS POSTAGE STAMPS

The first special Christmas stamps in Canadian postal history will go on sale October 14th, it was announced today by the Hon. John R. Nicholson, Postmaster General. There will be two stamps of similar design, a blue five cent denomination, and a red three cent issue. The stamps will show a family group of a man, a woman and two children in silhouette, walking off towards a Christmas star in a typical Canadian winter scene. The design is intended to express the feeling of Christmas as a religious and family occasion, and at the same time to portray the scene in a Canadian environment. It is also intended to tie in with the study of the family's place in contemporary Canadian life which was held last summer under the sponsorship of the Governor General and Madame Vanier.

Although the special issue will be honored as postage any time, the stamps will be withdrawn from regular sale at post office windows immediately after Christmas.

The new stamps are both in the regular small size, similar to the general issue postage stamps. A total of 100 million five cent stamps and 300 million three cent stamps will be printed.

James Dobbie

Mr. James Dobbie, his wife Jean and son Gregor, have been residents of St. Albert since 1954. During this time he has served the community in various fields including the Board of Trade and Lions Club. He is a Past President of both these organizations. His wife Jean has actively supported his interest in youth by her active participation in the girl guide movement. His friends fondly refer to him by the nickname of rank which he earned during active service in the armed force from 1939 - 1945.

Mr. Dobbie has been a member of the School Board since the School District was established in 1958. His experience in construction has made him the natural trustee choice for chairman of the building committee. He has been active in this position during the construction of all four schools and is still active in the work of the Sir George Simpson School addition.

NORMAN G. DOLMAN

I, Norman G. Dolman, have resided in St. Albert for four years, with my wife Dorcen, and my two children, Linda and John. I was born and educated in England and served in Germany during the second World War. I studied Optometry at the University of London, graduating with honours.

I came to Canada in 1957 and entered into practice in Edmonton. I have held office in the Alberta Optometric Association for the last 4 years. I am extremely interested in the education of our children and have had the pleasure of addressing some of the grade 5 students in St. Albert in the course of their health studies.

RONALD H. HARVEY

Ronald H. Harvey has been a resident of St. Albert for the past nine years where he resides with his wife, Joan, and two sons, Tony and Shawn. He is employed in Edmonton as an Insurance Agent.

He was one of the original members of the St. Albert Protestant Separate School District No. 6 and was the Chairman from inception in 1958 until he resigned as Chairman in May 1964 of his own accord.

Robert Russell

Robert Russell, Candidate for the St. Albert Protestant Separate School Board, has a varied background in business and civic affairs. Mr. Russell is the Managing Director of Robin Advertising in Edmonton and also holds the position of Executive Director of the Liberal Association of Alberta.

He attended high school in Lethbridge and completed courses at the University of B.C. Extension Department in Personnel Management and Business Administration. Mr. Russell served for three terms as a member of a negotiating board for an airline traffic employees union and has also negotiated contracts for management.

He is active in his church and has worked with young people. Mr. Russell is a member of the St. Albert YMCA and attended the 1964 St. Albert Cub Camp as a parent assistant.

Mr. Russell has been active in the promotion of a swimming pool for St. Albert and he and his neighbors entered a swimming pool float in the Civic Day parade which won first prize for originality.

He has shown particular interest in Education finance and chaired a forum on the Foundation Plan at a seminar at Medicine Hat in April of this year. The Russells have three children: Robbie 8; David, 7; and Resa, 5. They make their home at 37 Glenmore Crescent.

"Gee dad,
if everything costs money, what would
we do without you?"

I am interested in providing you with the kind of life insurance you really want and need - and can afford. You'll be surprised how many of your family's future problems I can help you solve.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Rev. Jarvis and Mrs. Jarvis

SERVICE OF RECOGNITION

SEPT. 11, 1964

At the Sir George Simpson School in St. Albert, a service of recognition was held by the Presbytery of Edmonton of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, for Rev. W. D. Jarvis, new extension worker for St. Albert and Jasper Place.

The Service was conducted by Acting Moderator of Presbytery, Rev. Jesse Bigelow. The Sermon was preached by Rev. James Perry of Killam and Callahad on the text "Other Sheep have I not of this fold". Following the sermon, Mr. Bigelow heard the vows required by the church on this occasion. The ministers of Presbytery welcomed Mr. Jarvis with the right hand of fellowship, after which he signed the formula; the formula being a summary of his adherence to the statements of doctrine held by the Presbyterian Church in Canada.

Rev. Gordon MacWillie, a friend who served in the next parish in Nova Scotia, gave the charge to the new minister, reminding him that he was a "leader" of his flock and that he should never do things in and for the congregation that its members were capable of doing. Mr. MacWillie also reminded the new minister of his personal need of prayer and study to equip himself properly for the work of the ministry.

Two laymen of the Presbytery took an active part in the service. Dr. Gordon Hodgson read the steps leading to the formation of the congregation and the appointment of their new minister. Alex Campbell spoke to the congregation challenging them to be loyal and to stand by their minister in all of his work.

Following the benediction, an informal service of welcome was held by the ladies of the Burning Bush.

Mr. Jarvis was born in Aultsville, Ont. and Mrs. Jarvis in New York State. Following his graduation Mr. & Mrs. Jarvis served in Moose Jaw, Sask., where Jimmy and Marie were born. Their two youngest children, Gordon and Stephen, were born in New Glasgow, N.S., while their minister father ministered to four rural congregations near there for the past five and a half years.

CLUB NOTES

The St. Albert Women's Institute will hold their first meeting Tuesday, Sept. 29 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Weiler, 18 Sturgeon Road. Roll call for this meeting will be "Highlights of Members Summer Holidays". All W.I. members are urged to attend to get the new season underway.

The St. Albert Ladies Curling Club will hold a general meeting Tuesday, Sept. 29 at 8 p.m. in the Curling Rink. Lady curlers of seasons past and this season beginners are invited to attend. Plans for the coming season will be discussed, so be sure not to miss this meeting! Further information call Mrs. Taylor, 599-7557.

The Brownie & Guide Association are still anxiously looking for leaders, assistants and helpers for the St. Albert Brownie packs and guide companies. It would be a shame to see some of the present groups fold due to lack of leaders. No previous experience is really necessary to assist with the work, and it's by far the most rewarding, as children respond as only children can, spontaneously and enthusiastically. Give it a whirl! You'll never be sorry. Call Mrs. Austin 599-7277 or Mrs. Rosniter 599-6320.

The St. Albert UGW are having a Dutch Auction Sale of used clothing, jewellery or what-have-you, on Monday, September 28, 8:30 p.m. in the Church basement. Now is the time to clean out those drawers and cupboards. Donations are needed. For pick-up of items, phone 599-7475. Join us for an evening of fun and bargains. Everyone is invited to attend. Please mark this date on your calendar. The Marguerite d'Youville Auxiliary held their first meeting of the new season recently at the Youville Home.

The monthly bingos for the residents will resumed beginning Saturday, September 26 at 2 p.m. Members are urged to turn out to help with this project. Many patients have been looking forward to the game

Members are to scour basements, attics and trunks for 'white elephants' - this table was a big success last year. The hair dressing service has resumed operation. The lady residents of the Home really enjoy the 'beauty parlor'. Volunteers who could give 2 or 3 hours a week are invited to call Mrs. Wilson 599-6038. One need not be professional - only willing. The Auxiliary's next meeting will be held October 13th.

A NEW OUTLOOK FOR THE CURLING CLUB

Vigorous plans to re-organise the St. Albert Curling Club will be publicly discussed at an open meeting of Club Shareholders and all interested curlers at the Rink at 7:30 p.m., Sunday, October 4th.

Representatives of the Club, the Men's, Mixed and Ladies' Leagues and the directors of the rink are co-operating to develop a revitalisation program to be presented to the General Meeting.

Acceptance of the principle of active participation in Club affairs by all local curlers will demonstrate very quickly the Club's ability to operate to the satisfaction of its curlers and its creditors both. Long range plans could include the completion of the upstairs club-rooms and full use of the rink facilities.

Negotiations with the Town for the purchase of the Rink as a publicly-owned recreational asset could be actively supported by such a club and alternative solutions explored.

All curlers and shareholders owe it to themselves to attend the meeting and help shape the future of curling in St. Albert.

The meeting is at 7:30 p.m. sharp, Sunday, October 4, 1964, at the St. Albert Curling Rink.

ST. ALBERT BOY MAKES GOOD

J. Paul Dusseault, who went to school in St. Albert for eight years, is now having a One-man Art Show in the St. Albert Art Gallery. He attends the University of Montana, where he went to take Advertising, but he was so apt with the paint brush that he soon changed his courses for straight art. He received the "Outstanding Student of the Year" award in Art at M.S.U. for paintings and prints.

He also received first prize in a state wide show for his lithograph prints, and first prize in the Students Show as well. He studied under Benjamin Benno, a contemporary of Picasso, and received honor standing.

His one-man art show is also a "first" for St. Albert. Paul intends to return to Edmonton after Christmas when he has attained his B.A., and work for an M.A. at the University of Alberta.

OPEN LETTER.....

from Fire Chief F. Tetarenko
Another year has rolled around and again we are coming to the season when it's time to prepare for the winter months and forget about the summer activities. This year Fire Prevention week is the week of October 4 to the 10. A reminder once more to do away with the Fire Hazards in a home, yard and business places

This year we had one house fire, but with your co-operation we can do better than that and not have any. The Fire Department is again going to do home inspections. These men are out to help you detect overlooked fire hazards and to answer questions that you may have pertaining to Fire Prevention in a home, etc.

The following recommendations for fire safety in a home are:

Do not store any flammable liquids in a home, or any equipment containing flammable liquid.

Check your furnace and filters, making sure that they are clean.

Do not store combustible materials too close to the heating units.

Keep combustible materials from underneath open stairways.

Do not overload your electrical circuits.

Check for any smouldering cigarette butts before leaving house or retirement.

Never leave small children unattended.

One more very important item is the practice of escape in case of fire. There should be two ways of escape from every room. This should be planned by every family, and fire drills held in every home.

For any information phone 599-7021 or 599-6601 - after hours 599-6815.

In case of fire or emergency phone 599-7777.

Remember, the Fire Department is willing and ready to help you day or night.

Please, don't give fire a place to start.

the silent slapstick comedy. There's this portly tycoon whose outlook on the world is cut short by the Financial Post which he is always reading. There's also a chauffeur, and a Rolly Royce. It's a hot summer's day but, as happens in fantasy, summer becomes winter, the scene shifts from an imposing residential street to the snow clad Laurentian hills, and the Rolly Royce dissolves into a toboggan. The toboggan escapes the chauffeur, and carries the tycoon, still immersed in the stock-exchange news, for as dizzy a ride as you could ever hope to see on the screen.

Painting a Province New Brunswick's rugged coasts, peaceful farms and burgeoning towns inspired past generations of artists. Today a new generation looks with fresh eyes on old scenes, expressing new concepts and ideas in strikingly modern tempo.

STURGEON HEALTH UNIT

BY B. PURIN
PUBLIC HEALTH NURSE

How necessary are all those extra vitamins you pump into your family every year? Do you know what vitamins are and where they come from? Are you 'in the know' on vitamins?

Vitamins are dietary essentials that the body is unable to make, at least in amounts needed, but must obtain from outside sources. Vitamins should be thought of as nutrients, and not as medicine. They are best obtained from FOODS properly chosen and prepared. Vitamins should not be given to babies unless mother has been advised to do so by her Doctor. She may only be incurring an unnecessary load on her budget, and vitamin overdosage for her child.

The two main kinds of vitamins are: those soluble in water and therefore not stored in the body causing excesses to be rapidly excreted; and those containing fats and oils which are stored and accumulated in the body where excesses may do serious harm.

Vitamins protect you against diseases you would probably get if you were receiving NO vitamins. Taking more vitamins (over and above proper diet) does no better than enough. If you take vitamins to make you feel better, to give more pep, to increase your children's appetite or to prevent colds in winter, you are keeping yourself from the facts. The truth is distorted by clever advertising, promises for better health and half truths that encourage vitamin overdose.

Nowadays, many foods are artificially vitamin reinforced but people continue to take extra vitamins which can be dangerous. Money is often needed for other things besides unnecessary quantities of vitamins.

Vitamins are plentiful in all available foods during all seasons. At one time, many important foods were not available in winter, thus creating a lack of important dietary substances. CANADA'S FOOD GUIDE teaches about the RIGHT foods and anyone who includes meats, vegetables, eggs, butter, fruit and whole milk does not require any additional vitamin, except Vitamin D as indicated in the Guide.

Infants on evaporated milk usually do not require extra vitamins A and D but need vitamin C found in juices (orange, apple, tomato). Now there are evaporated formulae which contain vitamin C as well as A, D and B. Some mothers do not READ LABELS and should!

A survey in Vancouver on vitamin intake of infants revealed that vitamin supplements may be needed under the guidance of a doctor in the following instances: infants on breast milk or cow's milk without vitamin D enrichment; infants whose milk intake is low; Infants allergic to orange juice or vitaminized apple juice or those who consistently refuse any food supplement containing the extra vitamin. Supplements are added only under a DOCTOR'S SUPERVISION.

If you can afford to buy expensive vitamins, you do not need them. Spend the money on more of the proper foods listed in Canada's Food Guide. A well-balanced diet will supply you and your family with all the vitamins and minerals that you need.
